About the role:

We broadcast 24/7/365 in more than 15 languages from our broadcasting studios. At the core of our floor operations are our Game Presenters and Game Hosts, who lead the game in front of the camera, and our Shufflers, who prepare the cards.

We are looking for Game Presenters who want to work in a fast-paced and international work environment for our studio in Malta. As a Game Presenter, you will spend most of your time in front of the camera leading games and interacting with our live players to provide an engaging and rewarding experience

Requirements

- To have fluent knowledge and understanding of the Language that you are applying for.
- The desire to provide exceptional customer service
- To be a mature and hardworking individual who can work well as part of a team
- Good communication skills
- Positive, pro-active approach to work, with a flexible, can-do attitude
- A sense of responsibility and aspire to be the best at what you do
- The ability to work as part of a wider team and be adaptable to changing business needs – this could include changing shift patterns and providing cover for colleagues
- To be an entertainer at heart
- Previous international experience with a right to work in the EU is a plus but not necessary

Training provided

Three weeks paid training (You will get to spend up to your first three weeks of your journey with us in our Evolution Academy where we teach you game technique and all that you need to know to be camera-ready & be able to provide an excellent service to our clients while constantly maintaining the highest professional standards. All this while getting paid.)

Any assistance with accommodation/relocation

- Relocation package including flights & accommodation for the first 20 nights in Malta (if applicable)
- Dedicated Employee Experience team who will support during the relocation

Any other benefits

- A competitive salary
- Monthly performance bonuses
- Free night shift taxi service to & from the studio
- Free gym membership
- Individual development and career progression opportunities
- Opportunities to attend entertainment, make-up, modelling, healthy living, presentation skills, industry knowledge, and communication workshops

Salary

Eur 18,000 - 23,500

How will the interviews be held

Online

Any other information

We do not require any specific work experience or skills for this role, but we need you to have good English, a strong work ethic, be open to learning new things, and ideally have worked at least part-time for a year or two, preferably with service-related tasks.
