About: PASCAL DUPUY (born 1965 in France) came to Norway as a 21-year-old and started his pastry career at the SAS hotel in Bergen. In 1995, he opened his first patisserie in Oslo. Pascal garners international recognition for his products and is incorporated into the prestigious compagnie Relais Dessert International which gathers 80 of the best patisseries in the world. Today he has 6 patisseries in the capital of Oslo, 2 patisseries which just have opened in Trondheim and one Ice-kiosk that opened mid-May in Aker Brygge in Oslo. The company is in continuous development and aims to establish several stores in the outskirts of Oslo as well as in the largest Norwegian cities. A new production is planned to be realized in 2025.

Future goals: Establishment of a 1500 m2 laboratory outside Oslo and establishment of more stores in and around Oslo, as well as in the larger cities over the next 5 years.
